Year 3 story starter cards

KS2 · age 7–8

Cut out the cards. Pick one, then say, draw or write what happens next.

After the storm, the beach was covered in things nobody had seen before.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

The museum had a new rule: no touching the exhibits. The exhibits, it turned out, had no such rule.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

Soon after the new neighbours arrived, every cat in the street started going missing at teatime and coming back smiling.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

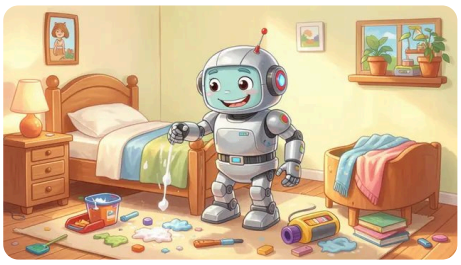

Elliot was the only person in his family without a special talent, until the morning he woke up speaking Dog.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

“The old windmill hasn’t turned for fifty years,” said Dad. That night, Mira heard it creak into life.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

The robot had been built to tidy bedrooms, but it much preferred making a mess.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

Next door’s tortoise was a hundred and three years old, and it had a story to tell.

Year 3 · ages 7–8

After weeks of rain, the puddle at the end of the lane had become a lake, and something was swimming in it.

Year 3 · ages 7–8